MEDICINAL.

CRASH!!

Goes the crockery and the waitress will probably be called clumsy and careless. Her plea of sudden dizziness is not allowed. "What right has she to be dizzy?" they ask. Women who are suffering from diseases peculiarly feminine are liable to sudden dizziness and faintness, and it is only by curing the womanly diseases to which they are subject that dizziness and other ills can be entirely relieved.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures irregularity, dries disagreeable, weakens drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. When these conditions are cured, headache, dizziness, etc., are also cured.

"I suffered for twelve years with female trouble," writes Mrs. Milton Grimes, of Adair, Okla., "which brought on other diseases—heart trouble, Bright's disease, and at times would be nearly paralyzed. Had neuralgia of stomach. I can freely say your medicine (Pierce's Favorite Prescription) cured me. I can work with comfort now, but before I would be tired all the time and have a dizzy headache, and my nerves would be all unstrung so I could not sleep. Now I can sleep and do a big day's work, something I had not done for over seven years before."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

PREACHER MAKES CHARGES.

Something of a sensation has been caused, both in Richmond and in Williamsburg, by the fact leaking out that

Rev. W. T. Roberts, rector of the famous "Old Bruton" Church, at the latter place, has sent a memorial to subbie, and one or two other members of the board of visitors. The charges refer to the habits of those against whom they are made.

Richmond, in which grave charges are made against President Lyon G. Tyler, of Williams and Mary College; Vice President

The memorial, of which Rev. Mr. Roberts is said to be the author, was sent to the constitutional convention in the nature of a protest against the educational institutions placed on the State board of education. The memorial has not been presented to the convention, though it is in the hands of a member.

It caused so much surprise that a copy is said to have been sent to the "Old Bruton" Church for such action as might be deemed wise, and the vestry was expected to consider the matter tonight.

Members of the convention are reticent about the matter, but admit the character of the memorial, which may not be submitted, since the president of Williams and Mary will probably not be placed on the board. The paper states that President Tyler's daughter is in attendance upon a northern college, at which Booker Washington's daughter is also a pupil.

A special from Williamsburg says that the vestry of "Bruton" Church was in session until after midnight, and strong speeches condemning the course of Rev. N. Roberts were made by several members. A resolution was adopted disavowing the letter he withdrew, and the vestry was expected to close with these words: "We, the vestry, do not sympathize with said letter."

After the meeting, a member of the vestry declared that Mr. Roberts would withdraw the letter.

MURDER OF A WELL-KNOWN MAN.

John G. Watts, one of the most prominent men of Tazewell county, was killed yesterday morning about 9 o'clock on his farm three miles east of Tazewell by a man named George W. Jones. Particulars as to how the killing occurred are meager, but from report it seems that Jones was building a line fence for an adjoining land owner, over which there was a controversy, and being forbidden by Watts to proceed with the work, attacked him while on his horse and struck him a violent blow with an iron post, his dagger, crushing his skull and causing death almost instantly.

Mr. Watts was twice United States marshal for the western district of Virginia, being appointed first by President Arthur, and was again appointed by President Harrison. He was a lawyer by profession, and was at one time commonwealth's attorney of Tazewell county. Since his term of office as marshal expired he had lived on his farm which is one of the finest in that county. Jones has not yet been arrested.

WILL WED DESPITE WILL.

Louis Herzog, the Philadelphia artist, announced Thursday that he and Miss Fanny McComb are to be married. Miss McComb's effort to secure a judicial interpretation of the clause in her father's will, which left her $2,000,000 if she did not wed Herzog, and only $15,000 a year if she did, caused a revival of the story that she would become the wife of the artist Thursday, and that an attempt to break the will would follow. Herzog at the Imperial Hotel, New York, said: "The story that Miss McComb and I have been married is untrue." Miss McComb will force a decision on the old clause in her father's will.

A Village Blacksmith Saved his Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan county, N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drugs and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes: "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup." For sale by R. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

An Immense Purchase of Finest Mercerized Satine Underskirts.

You doubtless remember the commo ion in the business world occasioned by the disastrous failure of the old established house of Selz Bros., the leading makers of high-class skirts. The failure was not only the worst in years, but on account of the unceremonious leaving of the members of the firm for parts unknown, their affairs were thrown into court, which appointed receivers to take charge of the stock and sell it subject to the approval of the court. Bids were called for, and Hecht & Co.'s bid was accepted.

And in this way we have come into possession of the entire stock of about 14,000 of the finest underskirts ever produced—and as our bid was very greatly below the actual cost of producing, the prices we have made for the selling of this immense purchase are the smallest ever named. Not a woman who is not personally interested in the magnitude and once-in-a-lifetime chance to secure such fine garments at such a small part of their worth. Read the description below—and come as early as possible for the better choosing:

These beautiful Petticoats are in the finest mercerized satine, very rich and beautiful, equal in appearance and far superior in wear to silk skirts. The trimmings include elaborate effects in velvet folds and plaques, pieced flounces, clusters of ruff, and a variety of pattern of trimming. Colors are royal, series, violet and black.

Although including an almost endless variety of grades, styles and qualities, the skirts have been divided into three lots at these prices:

Kodol Digests what you Eat Dyspepsia Cure

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating.

"After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amel Bell, Fredonia, Pa.
